Nevertheless, ye are blessed, for the testimony which ye have borne is recorded in heaven for the angels to look upon; and they rejoice over you, and your sins are forgiven you. (D&C 62:3)

As you share your testimony of Jesus Christ, your light shines brighter. You don't need to wait for a special moment. Speak of Him in your conversations with friends, neighbors, and family. Your sincere words about the Savior will touch hearts." (Elder Andersen, Sharing Your Light – Oct 2014)

36 And now, verily I say unto you, and what I say unto one I say unto all, be of good cheer, little children; for I am in your midst, and I have not forsaken you;
37 And inasmuch as you have humbled yourselves before me, the blessings of the kingdom are yours. (Doctrine and Covenants 61:36–37)

Pray always that you enter not into temptation, that you may abide the day of his coming, whether in life or in death. Even so. Amen. (Doctrine and Covenants 61:39)

47 He that is faithful and endureth shall overcome the world. (D&C 63:47)

59 Behold, I am from above, and my power lieth beneath. I am over all, and in all, and through all, and search all things, and the day cometh that all things shall be subject unto me. 60 Behold, I am Alpha and Omega, even Jesus Christ. (D&C 63:59–60)

Remember that that which cometh from above is sacred, and must be spoken with care, and by constraint of the Spirit; and in this there is no condemnation, and ye receive the Spirit through prayer; wherefore, without this there remaineth condemnation. (D&C 63:64)

“Often, the answer to our prayer does not come while we’re on our knees but while we’re on our feet serving the Lord and serving those around us. Selfless acts of service and consecration refine our spirits, remove the scales from our spiritual eyes, and open the windows of heaven. By becoming the answer to someone’s prayer, we often find the answer to our own.” (Russell M. Nelson – Revelation for Our Lives – April 2018)
